

Explosion of Color

Bus Tour Sponsored by the Friends of the KSU Gardens

Thursday, April 11, 2013

8am – 6pm

Bus will depart from Manhattan Town Center, east parking lot, (between JCPenney and Chili's) promptly at 8am.

Experience 1000's of tulips in bloom at the Bartlett Arboretum in Belle Plaine; enjoy a delicious Italian lunch at Luciano's in Mulvane; tour the Dyck Arboretum of the Plains in Hesston.

$50 per person

Includes transportation and entrance fee.
(Buffet lunch at Luciano's not included – est. cost less than $20)

Reservations & Payment

Must be received by March 28

Make reservations with Anne Springer

By email: spr@ksu.edu

or

By phone: 785-532-1442

(M,T,TH,F 8am-1pm)

Send payment to:

Friends of the KSU Gardens

Attn: Anne Springer

2021 Throckmorton Hall

Manhattan, KS 66506-5506

Net Proceeds benefit the KSU Gardens

The century-old, historic Bartlett Arboretum is home to massive cypress, oaks and champion Japanese maples; every spring there is an explosion of color from thousands of blooming tulips.

*Luciano's
Italian Restaurant*

Featuring authentic Italian cuisine and a buffet lunch for less than $20.

A prairie garden dedicated to educating people about the benefits of appreciating, preserving and utilizing native and adaptable plants in the landscape.